Project
Providing swift, accurate payroll
for a large team

Introduction

Household name, McCain Foods, needed a payroll system that could keep up with the demands of a complex, multinational business. Here's how Advanced's Flexipay solution empowered its payroll team and its wider workforce, in the company's own words.

Background: a people-first culture

At McCain Foods, we've always prided ourselves on putting our people first. Since creating the first frozen chip in 1957, we've grown to become a household name. Our business now encompasses 52 production sites over six continents – and more than 21,000 employees worldwide. Despite our success, we've never lost sight of the fact that our people are so vital to the continued strength of our business.

“Payroll is a highly sensitive, mission-critical, business function so it’s important to have a system you can trust and executes at pace”

Steve Donoghue
Payroll Manager

A system that meets high demands

With an organisation of our size, it's vital to have system in place that's agile and robust enough to pay our people swiftly and accurately. That's why we chose Flexipay to help ease the burden of running a complex payroll, cut down on unwieldy processing time and reduce the risks of human error with the aid of the automation of complex calculations.

Flexipay has empowered our payroll team with its straightforward and easy-to-use process and instantaneously automated reports that extract the information we need, right when we need it. It's also able to keep up with the demands of a large and complex business. As a scalable and secure solution, Flexipay works across multiple sites. What's more, we've saved time and reduced costs thanks to the system's rapid processing speed, which ensures our 1,500-plus UK employees are paid accurately and on time.

"A good long-standing relationship through offering a reliable and agile system and merging it with an excellent customer experience"

Steve Donoghue, Payroll Manager

A seamless and accurate payroll experience

With over 20 years' experience in the field, our Payroll Manager, Steve Donoghue, understands just how critical an effective pay solution is. He says:

"Payroll is a highly sensitive, mission-critical, business function so it's important to have a system you can trust and executes at pace, as it makes the world of a difference in your day-to-day role. Working with Advanced is like a partnership. It's a perfect example of developing a good long-standing relationship through offering a reliable and agile system and merging it with an excellent customer experience."

Flexipay is an agile, accessible and feature-rich solution that can handle the burden of complex pay calculations for multiple locations, pay rates, tax codes and benefits. It's helped our people to work smarter and we look forward to many years of working together with Advanced.
